About The Lutterworth Press

The Lutterworth Press is one of the longest-established independent British publishing houses. We have been trading since the late eighteenth century and have built up a world-wide reputation for publishing high quality books written by distinctive authors.

Originally founded as the Religious Tract Society, publishing activity was originally related to the areas of religion and children's literature, and the Press published such perennial favourites as The Boy's Own paper and the Girl's Own Paper. It soon added educational and adult non-fiction.

We aim for the highest quality, blending information, instruction and high production standards, to present the best of non-fiction.
