

Contents

CHAPTER 1

Introduction | 1

Conflicting Aesthetics

Meaning of Space

Some Formative Voices

Intentionality in Architectural Expression

PART ONE

CHAPTER 2

Iconology—Outline of a Working Methodology | 31

Architecture as a Visual Medium

Word-oriented and Form-oriented Church Space

The Classic Sacramental Tradition: Origins of Spatial Arrangements in Catholic Churches

The Classic Evangelical Tradition

Developments in the Classic Evangelical Tradition

Other Contributors to the Classic Evangelical Tradition

Protestant Church Building in France and the Classic Evangelical Tradition

CHAPTER 3

A Catholic Conception of Space:

The Visual World of the Middle Ages | 53

A Catholic Way of Seeing

Processions and Relics in the Medieval City

The Catholic Use of Symbols

Memory Devices and Conceptual Space

CHAPTER 4

A Reformed Conception of Space: An Analysis of Spatial Sanctity in Swiss and French Reformed Churches | 63

Calvin's Perspective

The Later Evolution of Calvin's Influence in France

The Communion as Sacred Space

Reformed Use of Space: Are Cemeteries Sacred?

How Did Reformed Christians Understand the Holy?

Huguenots and the Shaping of Worship Space

A Holy Place, Or a Holy People?

PART TWO

CHAPTER 5

Vitruvius, Serlio, and the Sixteenth-Century Architectural Treatise | 107

Proliferation of the Architectural Treatise

Vitruvian Prototype for the Architectural Manual

Reviving Classical Antiquity

Serlio's Appropriation of Vitruvius

CHAPTER 6

Protestant Architects' Use of Vitruvian Ideas | 124

Philibert de l'Orme

Bernard Palissy

Jacques-Androuet du Cerceau

Salomon De Brosse

Jacques Perret

CHAPTER 7

The Shaping of Reformed Worship Space | 155

St. Pierre

The Church of St. Gervais-St. Protais, Paris (1620)

The Second Temple of Charenton (1623)

CHAPTER 8

A Distinctively Reformed Voice | 185

APPENDIX | 189

Architectural Manuscripts or Prints Published in France, Written in French or Translated Into French (Sixteenth and Seventeenth Centuries)

Bibliography | 195