

Contents

Foreword by Thomas F. Best	vii
Preface by Nancy S. Gower	xi
Introduction: The Roots and Early History of the Community of Grandchamp	1
The Author: Minke de Vries (1929–2013)	35
Introduction	39
Chapter 1: In the Beginning  	42
When the World is Troubled and in Distress . . . God Acts	42
Signs in the Church	45
The Great Field ( Grand Champ ) of the World	48
From “Yes” . . . to “Yes” . . .	52
Monastic Inspiration within the Churches of the Reformation	54
Call to Life in Community	57
Presence to the World: First Steps	61
Taizé, Pomeyrol . . .	63
Through the Prayers of an Apostle of Unity: Abbé Paul Couturier	69
The Call of God . . . the Commitments	76
Here Am I, Holy Spirit, Creator of Life	81
Chapter 2: The Adventure of Open Communion  	84
Putting Down Ecclesial Roots Far and Near	84

Rooted In the Same Ecumenical Dynamic	87
Easter, Feast of Feasts . . . of Unity	92
Easter Sunrise at Grandchamp	95
Community Worship and Personal Prayer	98
Personal Prayer As a Source of Communion	102
The Eucharist	104
The Eucharist, Foundational Act of Nonviolence	110
From the Desert to Communion	113
Becoming a Parable of Community	122
Reconciliation and Gospel Nonviolence	130
Steps on the Road of Gospel Nonviolence	134
Chapter 3: Together in Solidarity with a World in Travail  	138
On the Road to Eastern Europe	138
Three Pilgrims in the Spirit of the Beatitudes	142
“Memory for Peace” at Auschwitz	147
Pilgrimage for Peace in the Holy Land	149
The Mystery of Israel	155
Our Ties with the Community of Imshausen	159
The Winds of Renewal	162
From Visitations to Visitations	165
Chapter 4: Testimonies of “Otherness” within the One Love  	171
In Places of Brokenness	171
The Daughters of Abraham	176
The Spiritual Family of Grandchamp	179
Conclusion  	187
Toward the Fruits of Grace	187
The Creation	189
Watch Over the World	190
Appendix: Several Communities Introduce Themselves—2007	193
Bibliography	197
Index	205