BACKLIST 2022

INDEPENDENT PUBLISHING SINCE 1799

The Lutterworth Press is one of the longest-standing independent publishing houses in Britain. We have been trading since the late eighteenth century and have built up a global reputation for publishing high quality books written by distinctive authors.

Originally founded as the Religious Tract Society, we first specialised in the areas of religion and children's literature, producing such perennial favourites as The Boy's Own Paper and The Girl's Own Paper. In time, we began to add educational and adult non-fiction to our expanding repertoire. The imprint went on to publish some of the most recognisable names in twentieth-century culture, including Sir David Attenborough, Sir Patrick Moore, and Enid Blyton.

Over the course of more than two centuries, we have developed an impressive and expanding range of scholarly and trade nonfiction for a general readership.
